Part Time Learning

To invest into your education is probably the best investment you can make – you will benefit from this all your life - and the friends you make during your education will enrich you for many ways.

Part-time study is becoming more and more a way of life. Many recognize that to advance in their profession they need to improve their qualifications continuously and the qualifications obtained gives them a sense of personal achievement and increased confidence to take advantage of job prospects coming their way.

For a growing number of adults personal and professional circumstances demand however, that they continue to earn a living and part-time study is the only way to achieve this goal.

Overview

The second year to the Higher Diploma in Hospitality Management consists of one intensive study period of 12 months at the BHMS campus in Lucerne, Switzerland. This program suits professionals who already work in a position in the hospitality, service- or tourism industry and who want continue to work whilst learning towards a bachelor degree.

BHMS is a member of the Bénédict Switzerland group of schools, founded in 1928, whose mission is to provide adult education for people with a desire to succeed. Bénédict School is one of Switzerland's largest private education organizations and is teaching each year more than 15,000 full and part time students.

Since the accreditation of the Higher Diploma in Hospitality Management by the University of Brighton, UK, in autumn of 2003 over 150 students have successfully completed the Diploma program.

You and your peers learn from a dedicated faculty, who in addition to their academic credentials, brings along know-how and experience in the business field. This ensures that what you learn in class is contemporary and can be applied in real world situations in a daily business environment.

Aim of the Program

The BHMS Hospitality program is specifically designed for young adults wishing to enter the international hotel and hospitality field and who are aspiring a management career in this industry.

The program offers students an academic education together with vocational core competency training. This carries considerable value and prestige with employers worldwide. It can also benefit people looking to obtain the necessary specialized knowledge when thinking about opening their own business.

The second year allows students deeper insight into subjects started in year one. It gives them a chance to learn more theory and allows them greater flexibility in selecting elective subjects of special interest. The Higher Diploma is generally required for international placement as it indicates the level and depth of learning achieved in operational as well as theoretical subjects. A second successfully completed Swiss hospitality paid internship indicates a students' seriousness of purpose to potential future employer.
